

System Components

Components, accessories and instruments

Overview of core system components used to build external fixator configurations.

A quick sheet for teams completing system sets and components.

Component categories

- clamps and connectors
- carbon rods and tubes
- Schanz pins
- guides, wrenches and instruments

System relevance

- modular configuration
- selection by anatomical area
- set completion
- support for quotation requests

What to include in an enquiry

- anatomical area
- planned configuration
- number of sets
- preferred delivery time

FAVRE Medical

Contact: contact@favremedical.com | favremedical.com

PDF catalogue and B2B enquiry available on favremedical.com